A Branovan Company (ABC) is pleased to announce that they have signed a partnership agreement with Weber Motorsports for the 2007 racing season. A Branovan Company will become the primary sponsor of the #99 Legend car driven by Brad Weber.

Weber Motorsports fields a Legends car weekly at Charter Raceway Park in Beaver Dam Wisconsin. In addition, Weber Motorsports will participate in a number of special race events at other area tracks as well as making a number of promotional appearances.

Weber Motorsports driver Brad Weber is a successful veteran of midget cars and switched over to the Legends division a year ago. Weber was voted the “Most Popular Driver” at Charter Raceway Park in 2006. He also finished 3rd in the Legends points chase in 2006.

In conjunction with the Weber Motorsports partnership, A Branovan Company will also be a 2007 sponsor partner with Charter Raceway Park. The Charter Raceway Park partnership will include promotional products produced for Charter. Also planned are a number of special events at Charter Raceway Park featuring promotional products supplied by A Branovan Company.

A Branovan Company is a Milwaukee based promotional products company established in 1996. ABC has grown into one of the top 10% of promotional products distributors in the United States. The ABC office and warehouse facility is located on the northside of Milwaukee and features the largest promotional products showroom in Wisconsin.

Weber Motorsports is a Juneau Wisconsin based race team owned by Brad Weber. Weber is a long time driver and team owner. Weber spent many years as a successful driver of dirt midget cars at race tracks around the country. His current focus is on the Legends division but plans are being made for a limited number of midget appearances in 2007.
